Remember

Your days at dear ole E. H. S.? ... The way the day began and ended at your locker ... the long lines at the bookstore ... the mad rush to session room before the tardy bell ... the clamor in the halls between classes ... the hush over assembly as the secretary read Holy Scripture ... the work in classes ... "Coach" Posey ... the inner sanctum of room 103 and the marshal captain table ... the new pay 'phone ... "Warden" and "Commander" ... the noise in the lunch room ... the quiet (?) of the study halls ... Coach Mac's eighth period class ... the way the halls were suddenly empty at 3:00 o'clock ... the jostling hordes on the No. 7 and No. 32 ... the excitement of our games ... the gaiety of "extra curricular" activities ... and best of all, the holidays.

Yes, these are some of the things we associate with our Alma Mater. In this edition of our yearbook we have as our theme, "Memories", to help you recall the outstanding scenes, people, and events of the past year. We will bring you memories of Seniors, Features, and Sports. Now as you turn the pages, we sincerely hope that your memories will be pleasant.

We Dedicate....

The senior classes of 1952 and the staff of "The Jacket" proudly dedicate this edition of our yearbook to Miss Elizabeth R. Selman, our director of choral music for the past four years.

Remember how patiently she worked with us ... how, at times, she could "cut up" with us ... how she could always find time to help us ... how she won a special place in all our hearts. Of all the memories of Ensley High School, none are more pleasant than those of Elizabeth Selman.
